

seattle

THE PREMIER SEATTLE MONTHLY

APRIL 2006

EXTREME PIZZA's poultry geist pie slides down great with a crisp cold one

TRENDWATCH

BEST NEW PIZZA FRANCHISE

Extreme Pizza

Issaquah: 660 Front St. N; 425.837.1700

It's called Extreme Pizza, it hails from California, its first location in this state was in Issaquah, it's decorated along a surf/snowboard/ski theme, it has cutesy wordplay all over its menu and its pizzas feature scary combinations like ranch-dressing-marinated chicken with broccoli, Gorgonzola and fresh sage. And here's the shocker: It's terrific. Not only is the company famously enlightened, it puts a premium on service (meaning that skateboarder behind the counter really does want to serve you)-and those bizarro combos really work. Go figure.